What is the Great Tribulation?

The Great Tribulation is a serial of events that will afflicted the whole world. A political figure empowered by Satan will sit in the Jewish temple—the holy place—and declare himself to be the Messiah and God. This act is identified in Scripture as the "abomination of desolation."

This event marks the beginning of "Jacob's trouble" and the Great Tribulation.

According to the Revelation, Knowledge of the word of God, this book is explained in Three Steps.

First Step: Displaying the Book in Three Verses:

a. Daniel Chapter 9 Verse 27:

"And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate."

This verse is understood to point to the restoration of a Third Temple, the interruption of sacrifices, and opposition to those sacrifices, including opposition from international animal-rights activists. In this interpretation, these events relate to the final three and a half years.

b. Daniel Chapter 12 Verse 11:

"And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days."

This verse is understood to indicate that the abomination of desolation begins 30 days after the daily sacrifice is discontinued and the associated offense occurs.

c. Daniel Chapter 12 Verse 12:

"Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days."

The word "blessed" is understood to mean that people may still be saved during these 45 days of the Great Tribulation. The reference to 1,335 days is interpreted as indicating that the Church will be taken from the earth on the final day of the first 45 days of the Great Tribulation.

From 1,290 to 1,300 will be 10 days. From 1,300 to 1,335 will be 35 days. Therefore, 10 days + 35 days will be 45 days.

Therefore, God already revealed to Daniel 450 years BC; the Revelation of the raptures is brought by the Apostle John 98 AB.
